

Sing A Song Of Sixpence

George Steevens (1736–1800)

C G7

1.Sing a song of six - pence, A pock - et full of rye. Four and twent-y black - birds, king was in his count-ing house, Count-ing out his money; The queen was in the par - lour, Eat - ing

C G7

Baked in a pie. When the pie was o - pened, The birds be - gan to sing; bread and honey. The maid was in the gar - den, Hang - ing out the clothes,

Was - n't that a daint - y dish, To set be - fore the king? 2.The
When down came a black - bird And pecked off her nose.

There was such a commotion,
that little Jenny wren Flew down into the garden,
and put it back again.

They sent for the king's doctor,
who sewed it on again;
He sewed it on so neatly,
the seam was never seen.
